

Ronnie Cowan MP

Ronnie is the Member of Parliament for Inverclyde having retained the seat at the 2017 General Election.

Ronnie is originally from Greenock and after leaving school he got a job as a trainee computer operator at Playtex in Port Glasgow, and went on to build a career in IT, latterly running his own company which focussed on finding IT solutions to business problems.

Political Interests; Drugs policy reform, employment, gambling related harm, renewables and universal basic income

Contact details;

Constituency office: 20 Crawford Street, Greenock, Inverclyde, PA15 1LJ

Email: ronnie.cowan.mp@parliament.uk

Telephone: 01475 721 877

Facebook: www.facebook.com/RonnieCowanSNP

Twitter: @ronniecowan