

Cosima Kern

As Vice-Chair of Germany's basic income party "Bündnis Grundeinkommen", founded in 2016, Cosima Kern wants to foster debates about basic income across society and the political spectrum in Germany. She is currently finishing her studies in Philosophy & Economics at the University of Bayreuth and strives to pursue an academic career in Public Policy. Bündnis Grundeinkommen will take part in this year's general election on 24th September.
